Dear Gauri

I am delighted to inform you that the University is offering you admission to LLM Corporate Law – 1 Year (PTLLMCORPL1F) under the Terms and Conditions below. Please read this offer and the specific terms carefully and complete the instructions as necessary.

This offer is governed by the University's admissions terms and conditions:
<https://www.ed.ac.uk/studying/admissions/terms-conditions>.

You will find information relating to your offer and your right to cancel (should you choose to accept it and then change your mind), as well as information such as how to pay your tuition fees, how to find out about any other charges you may incur as a student, and what you should do if you have a complaint.

If you decide to accept our offer, you will also be accepting our admissions terms and conditions, as well as the other University regulations that form part of the student contract: <https://www.ed.ac.uk/students/academic-life/contract>

Your offer is CONDITIONAL on you meeting the requirements as detailed. Please submit the requested documentation as soon as you have it. The response deadline shown below is not the deadline for submitting these documents and meeting the conditions of your offer; that deadline is for you to accept or decline this offer. If you choose to accept this offer then once you have met the conditions, we will be able to send you an unconditional offer of admission..

Conditions to be met:

IELTS 7.0 (with at least 6.5 in each section and 7.0 in writing)

Or

TOEFL- internet based test (iBT) 100 (with no score lower than 23 in each section and 25 in writing)

Or

Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE): 185 (at least 185 in writing and at least 176 in the other modules)

Or

Cambridge Certificate of Advanced English (CAE): 185 (at least 185 in writing and at least 176 in the other modules)

Your English Language Certificate must be no more than two years old at the beginning of your degree programme.

www.ed.ac.uk/studying/international/english/postgraduate PLUS

Payment of deposit. Please see link below for further information and how to pay.

You must accept or decline this offer by 18/03/2024, as competition for places at the University of Edinburgh is very high. Please note, by accepting an offer, you are not committing yourself to study at the University. Accepting your offer helps with our admission process and may help you in applying for funding, accommodation or a student visa (if required). We would encourage you to accept your offer as soon as possible.

Monitoring and academic progress

Please note that if you fail to make adequate academic progress, the University reserves the right either to transfer you to a lower degree or to discontinue your studies.

Funding and Living Costs

This offer of admission is made on the understanding that you will be responsible for securing funding to cover all your fees and living expenses. Living expenses are in addition to tuition fees and additional programme costs and estimated costs are given on the following website: <http://www.ed.ac.uk/studying/international/finance/cost-of-living>

Fees

Fees are quoted on the assumption that the start date, mode of study and tuition fee status information shown above is correct. The estimated tuition fee quoted above is the rate for the first year of your programme of study. If you have applied for a programme of study of more than one year, you should be aware that the tuition fees increase every year. However – international students studying full time on undergraduate and postgraduate taught programmes lasting more than one year will have their fee level fixed for the duration of their studies.

The estimated annual fee quoted is the total tuition fee amount that will be payable by either yourself or your sponsor in year 1 of study, prior to the deduction of any deposit you have paid or any discount for which you may be eligible. It does not include additional programme costs or any initial registration fee. If applicable, these are quoted separately above. Please note that students who have been nominated by their home university to apply to the University of Edinburgh as part of a reciprocal exchange programme (eg Erasmus) will not be liable for fee payment, although a fee amount may be shown above.

All amounts are quoted in pounds sterling.

For further information about fees please visit <https://www.ed.ac.uk/tuition-fees> or contact Fees and Student Support Team
email: fees@ed.ac.uk
tel: +44 (0)131 650 2230

The University welcomes early payment of fees. For more information about early payment and payment methods, please visit <http://www.ed.ac.uk/schools-departments/finance/students>.

Tuition fee deposit

You will need to pay a £1500 deposit towards your tuition fees. Regulations for the fee deposit scheme, including details of when the deposit is payable and how to pay, can be found at <https://www.law.ed.ac.uk/study/masters-degrees-tuition-fee-deposit>. It is essential that you read these regulations carefully as, if you fail to comply with them, this offer will be withdrawn without further notice.

Please be advised that you have a legal right to cancel your acceptance of our offer in accordance with the University's admissions terms and conditions. If you cancel within 14 days from your acceptance and you have made any deposit payment prior to the date of cancellation, the University will provide you with a full refund as soon as possible and within 30 days of the University receiving your written notice of cancellation.

Attendance date

The attendance date for your studies is shown in the offer. You must take up your place at the University no later than the attendance date specified. If you do not do so, the University reserves the right to withdraw the offer of a place.

Matriculation and payment of fees

You must matriculate at the start of your programme. You will be expected to pay your standard tuition fees and any additional programme costs for the year on first matriculation, and annually thereafter if your programme lasts more than one year.
